Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant Nino Tanzini and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Counts of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment, which charges: production of child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2251(a).

ORIGINAL

B. Elements of Offense

The elements of Counts 1 and 2—production of child pornography—are:

1. The Defendant knowingly employed, used, persuaded, enticed and coerced any minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct;
2. The purpose of the conduct was to produce any visual depiction of such conduct; and
3. The materials used to produce the visual depiction had been mailed, shipped, and transported in and affected interstate and foreign commerce.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for defendant's guilty plea:

At all times relevant to the indictment, the defendant lived with MV-1, and had custody, care, or supervisory control of her.

From on or about January 2012 through on or about May 2014, the defendant, Nino Tanzini, knowingly employed, used, persuaded, enticed and coerced any minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing a visual depiction of such conduct, and those visual depictions were produced using materials that had been mailed, shipped, or transported across state lines or in foreign commerce by any means.

Specifically, beginning sometime in the summer of 2012, defendant began having regular sexual intercourse with MV-1, sometimes daily. The sexual intercourse included vaginal, oral, and anal sex. The defendant also began videotaping the sexual acts. Over the course of summer 2012 through May 2014, the defendant produced hundreds of images and videos of child pornography with MV-1. Moreover, the nature of his sexual contact with MV-1 was sadistic, masochistic, and on several occasions, left MV-1 battered and bruised. At one point, defendant uploaded several sexually explicit images of MV-1 onto an “alt sex” website/forum.

At all times relevant to the indictment, the defendant lived with MV-2, and had custody, care, or supervisory control of her.

From on or about January 2012 through on or about May 2014, the defendant, Nino Tanzini, knowingly employed, used, persuaded, enticed and coerced any minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing a visual depiction of such conduct, and those visual depictions were produced using materials that had been mailed, shipped, or transported across state lines or in foreign commerce by any means.

Specifically, beginning sometime in the summer of 2012, defendant began having sexual intercourse with MV-2, over a dozen times, including vaginal, oral, and anal sex. During this period of time, the defendant would videotape the sexual acts and take sexually explicit pictures of MV-2.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, defendant's guideline range is life imprisonment, as set forth on the attached worksheets. But if the Court finds:

1. That defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or

2. that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than life imprisonment, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. But if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

C. Relevant Conduct

The relevant conduct in this case includes, but is not limited to, all the counts in the Indictment.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the parties agree that the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the statutory maximum penalties on Counts 1 and 2, which is 60 years' imprisonment. The parties agree that the Court must impose a sentence of imprisonment of at least 25 years, and the defendant may not request a sentence below 25 years' imprisonment.

The parties further agree that the government will recommend that the sentence imposed run concurrently to the sentences imposed in defendant's cases arising in Oakland County Circuit Court: 2014-250656-FH (People v. Tanzini), and 2014-252300-FC (People v. Tanzini).

The government agrees not to object if the defendant requests that the Court recommends placement at a Bureau of Prison facility that offers sex offender treatment programs.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement as to the term of supervised release. But the Court must impose a term of supervised release on Counts 1 and 2 of no less than five years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that result from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $200 and must provide the government with a receipt for the payment before sentence is imposed.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

The Court shall order restitution to every identifiable victim of defendant's offense. There is no agreement on restitution. The Court will determine who the victims are and the amounts of restitution they are owed.

4. SORNA/Adam Walsh Act

Defendant understands that by pleading guilty in this case, he will be required to register as a sex offender, under both federal and state registration requirements. As a condition of his release from prison on supervised release in this case, defendant will be obligated to promptly register under the federal sex offender registry. Defendant may also be required to register under the law of the state in which he resides, as well as any state where he has significant contacts (including any state where he resides, works, attends school or otherwise has significant contacts). Defendant further understands that he will be required to maintain and update his registration for at least twenty years, and potentially for the rest of his life.

5. Forfeiture

Upon conviction for the conduct alleged in Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment, the defendant shall, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253, forfeit to the United States the property as it was used or intended to be used to commit or to promote the commission of the offenses charged.

In entering this agreement with respect to forfeiture, defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waives any challenge to the above-described forfeiture based upon the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

In entering into this agreement with respect to forfeiture, defendant expressly waives his right to have a jury determine the forfeitability of his interest in the above identified personal property as provided by rule 32.2(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

With respect to the above property, defendant agrees to the entry of one or more orders of forfeiture of his interest in such property upon application by the United States at, or anytime before his sentencing in this case. Defendant further agrees to hold the United States, its agents and employees harmless from any claims whatsoever in connection with the forfeiture of property covered by this agreement.

Defendant further waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2 and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, pronouncement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment. Defendant acknowledges that he understands that the forfeiture of assets is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives any failure by the court to advise him of this, pursuant to Rule 11(b)(1)(J), at the time his guilty plea is accepted.

6. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

If the Court allows the defendant to withdraw his guilty plea for a "fair and just reason" pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(B), defendant waives his rights under Fed. R. Evid. 410, and the government may use his guilty plea, any statement made under oath at the change-of-plea hearing, and the factual basis statement in this plea agreement, against him in any proceeding.

7. Other Charges

If the Court accepts this agreement, the government will dismiss any remaining charges in this case.

8. Each Party's Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B. The government may also withdraw from this agreement if the Court decides to impose a sentence less than 25 years' imprisonment or if the defendant requests a sentence of less than 25 years' imprisonment.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Part 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Part 3.

9. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction. If the defendant's sentence does not exceed the maximum allowed by Part 3 of this agreement, the defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence. If the sentence imposed is within the guideline range as determined by Paragraph 2B, the government agrees not to appeal the sentence, but retains its right to appeal any sentence below that range. Nothing in this waiver shall be construed to bar a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, provided that the defendant properly raises such claim by collateral review under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

10. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

11. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

12. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

13. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 2:00 p.m. on 01.29.15. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
